Dear Registrant/Licensee:

As you know, in making a determination about an applicant's good character, honesty and integrity, the Business Integrity Commission may consider, among other things, whether the applicant "associate[d] with a person who has been convicted for a racketeering activity when the applicant knew or should have known of such activity." NYC Administrative Code §22-259(b). Doing business with a person who has been convicted for a racketeering activity has been interpreted as "associating" with such person.

You are put on notice that the following people were convicted in Supreme Court, New York County, for racketeering activity as defined by Penal Law ("P.L.") §460.10 et seq.:

Charles Russo
Salvatore DiPietro
Ronald Seebeck
Salvatore Paravati
Joseph Pallonetti
Ciro Diaco
John Byrne
Thomas Clemenson
Michael Distasio
Carmine Tenga
Ralph Balsamo
John Caggiano
Douglas Maletton
Robert Russo

Please contact Patricia Corrigan at 212-676-6255, if you have any questions.

Sincerely,
