

The Business Integrity Commission is pleased to announce City Pay, an online payment option for trade waste violations.

City Pay allows companies to quickly and easily pay trade waste violations online using their credit card or E-check. City Pay accepts Visa, MasterCard, Discover, American Express and E-Check.

Please visit the City Pay website: <https://paydirect.link2gov.com/NYCBIC-TWS>

City Pay is a collaboration between BIC and the NYC Department of Finance as part of the citywide payments and receivables program. A key aspiration of this program is to give the public more and better payments service options. BIC is pleased to work with Finance in offering this resource to licensees and registrants and continuing the City's efforts to streamline and modernize municipal services.

If you have any questions, please contact BIC's Violations hotline at 212-676-1882.
