Dear Prospective Interns:

1 Centre Street
24th Floor
New York, NY 10007

Public Service has always provided great opportunities to make a difference. The City of New York's 2012 Summer Internship Program offers an enormous range of challenging opportunities for both graduate and undergraduate students. Internships are available in virtually every area of municipal government: education to new media, health services to budget administration, and from information technology to housing.

(212) 669 3311 fax

In addition to experiencing the daily challenges and rewards of public service, summer interns also participate in a series of seminars featuring top City officials presenting overviews of the mechanics of local government and providing insights into issues that confront the City today.

In reviewing the position postings on this Website, please pay close attention to the agency-specific application and eligibility information as they vary from position to position.

Join us this summer and experience the special satisfaction that comes only from public service and the pride of having had New York City government as part of your professional training background. We look forward to your many contributions.

Sincerely,

Barbara Grossman
Assistant Commissioner
