

ELIGIBILITY TO TAKE EXAMINATION: This examination is open to each employee of an agency under the jurisdiction of the Commissioner, Department of Citywide Administrative Services who on October 25, 2011:

- (1) holds a permanent (not provisional) competitive appointment or appears on a Preferred List (see Note, below) for the title of Supervisor I (Social Work) ; or
- (2) holds a permanent (not provisional) competitive appointment or appears on a Preferred List (see Note, below) for the title of Supervisor I (Social Services) and possesses a Master's Degree in Social Work from a college or university that must be accredited by regional, national, professional, or specialized agencies recognized as accrediting bodies by the U.S. Secretary of Education and by the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA); and
- (3) is not otherwise ineligible.

(Note: A "Preferred List" is a civil service list which is only for certain former permanent incumbents of the eligible title who have rehiring rights.)

The admission of employees in the title of Supervisor I (Social Services) is on a collateral basis and applies to this examination only. It is not considered a precedent for future examinations. Supervisors I (Social Services) who are applying for this examination must complete Section A.5 of the Education and Experience Test Paper to indicate that they have a Master's Degree in Social Work.

This examination is also open to employees who were appointed to an eligible title pursuant to New York State Civil Service Law, section 55-a, and who meet all other eligibility requirements.

If you do not know if you are eligible, check with your agency's personnel office.

ELIGIBILITY TO BE PROMOTED: In order to be eligible for promotion, you must have completed your probationary period in the eligible title as indicated in the above "Eligibility To Take Examination" section, and you must be permanently employed in the eligible title or your name must appear on a Preferred List for the eligible title at the time of promotion. Additionally, you must have served permanently in the eligible title for at least one year, unless your probationary period in that eligible title has been waived pursuant to Rule 5.2.4 of the Personnel Rules and Regulations of the City of New York.

A valid Licensed Master Social Worker (LMSW) license or Licensed Clinical Social Worker (LCSW) license issued by the New York State Department of Education must be obtained within one year of the date of promotion. This license must be maintained for the duration of your employment. Employees who fail to obtain their LMSW or LCSW within one year after promotion will automatically have their probationary period extended for no more than six months. Failure to obtain the LMSW or LCSW by the end of 18 months of service will result in termination of your promotion to this title.

Section 424-a of the New York Social Services Law requires an authorized agency to inquire whether a candidate for employment with child-care responsibilities has been the subject of a child abuse and maltreatment report. The agency has the discretion to assign a candidate who has been the subject of a child abuse and maltreatment report to a position with no child-care responsibilities.

REQUIRED FORMS:

1. Application for Examination: If you are applying online, follow the online instructions. If you are applying by mail, make sure that you follow all instructions included with your application, including payment of fee. Save a copy of the instructions for future reference.
2. Education and Experience Test Paper: Fill out Sections A.1 (if applicable), A.5 (if applicable), B, and D (if applicable). This form must be filled out completely and in detail for you to receive your proper rating. Keep a copy of your completed Education and Experience Test Paper for your records. If you are applying online, follow the online instructions. If you are applying by mail, write your social security number in the box at the top right side of the cover page, and the examination title and number in the box provided. Be sure to write your examination number and social security number on each of the remaining pages of this form.
3. Foreign Education Fact Sheet (Required only if you need credit for your foreign education to meet the education and experience requirements). For Supervisors I (Social Services) only: If you were educated outside the United States, you must have your foreign education evaluated to determine its equivalence to education obtained in the United States. The services that are approved to make this evaluation are listed on the Foreign Education Fact Sheet included with your application packet. When you contact the evaluation service, ask for a "document-by-document"(general) evaluation of your foreign education directly to the Department of Citywide Administrative Services no later than eight weeks from the last date for applying for this examination.

THE TEST: You will be given an education and experience test. Your score on this test will be used to determine your place on an eligible list. On the education and experience test you will receive a score of 70 points for meeting the eligibility requirements listed above. After these requirements are met, you will receive additional credit up to a maximum of 100 points on the following basis:

If you have satisfactory full-time experience gained after receiving a Master's Degree in Social Work as a permanent (not provisional) Supervisor I (Social Work) or Supervisor I (Social Services) supervising a group of Social Workers who provide psychosocial services utilizing casework, group work or community organization methodologies; or performing difficult/complex program evaluation and planning work; supervising program evaluation and planning work of ordinary difficulty; and/or

If you have equivalent satisfactory full-time supervisory experience with an employer other than the City of New York gained after receiving a Master's Degree in Social Work supervising a group of Social Workers who provide psychosocial services utilizing casework, group work or community organization methodologies; or supervising program evaluation and planning work of ordinary difficulty for:
