Commissioner Welcomes Five New Members to Management Team

At the June Graduation Ceremony at Brooklyn College, five administrators were named to positions where they will play a key role in the Commissioner's reform agenda.

James Dzurenda, who has 27 years of experience at all levels in the Connecticut Department of Corrections, was appointed First Deputy Commissioner.

Timothy Farrell was appointed Deputy Commissioner for the Office of Classification and Population Management. Farrell has 28 years of experience in corrections, including serving as warden at the Bridgeport Correctional Center.

James Walsh was appointed Deputy Commissioner of Adult Programming and Community Partnerships. He will rely on his 37 years of experience in developing sophisticated classification for the adult inmates.

Gregory Kuczinski was named Assistant Commissioner of the Investigation Division. Kuczinski has extensive experience as an attorney working in private practice and as an employee of the NYPD.

Keith Taylor was named Assistant Commissioner of the Correction Intelligence Bureau. He has extensive experience in law enforcement including working with the NYPD.
