PROGRAM OVERVIEW

The New York City Health & Hospitals Corporation received funding from the Mayor's Center for Economic Opportunity to provide scholarships for income eligible New York City residents to attend nurse training programs leading to employment at an HHC facility.

HHC is offering two training opportunities at select facilities:

Licensed Practical Nurse Training

HHC has partnered with the New York City Department of Education to offer a 11-month Licensed Practical Nurse training program.

Located at Goldwater Hospital's beautiful campus on Roosevelt Island, this program will accommodate 40 students per year. Program runs from September through June.

Bachelor of Science in Nursing (BSN)

HHC has partnered with local colleges and universities to offer a BSN/RN degree program.

Coming in September 2009, a newly renovated nursing school will open at the historical site of Kings County's first nursing school. This program will accommodate 60 students per year.

PROGRAM CRITERIA

This program is open to all NYC residents who meet the following criteria:

- Must be at least 17 years old
- Must have a HS Diploma or GED
- Must pass all required entrance exams
- Must meet income eligibility requirements

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

All scholarship recipients are required to sign a commitment to work at HHC upon successful completion of training program.
