

FREE LEGAL ASSISTANCE FOR VICTIMS OF HURRICANE SANDY | THIS THURSDAY

City Council Member Rosie Mendez and Assemblymember Brian Kavanagh are proud to host the New York Legal Assistance Group (NYLAG) Mobile Legal Help Center.

When: This Thursday—November 15th, 2012 | 10:00 AM—4:00 PM
Where: P.S. 34 | Lobby & Auditorium (1730 East 12th Street)
What: Free Legal Advice and Assistance for Victims of Hurricane Sandy

The Mobile Legal Help Center is a fully functioning mobile legal services office. It will be able to provide you with guidance on a range of legal issues, including:

- FEMA Claims | Filing for FEMA and other disaster program benefits; Appealing denied claims; Documenting damage to homes and small businesses
- Housing | Insurance claims; Eligibility for housing vouchers; Landlord/tenant disputes; Wrongful evictions; Mortgage issues for affected homes
- Consumer Matters | Bankruptcies and credit problems; Contractor and other disaster-related frauds; Financial and debt counseling
- Family Law Matters | Domestic violence; Custody and divorce
- Accessing & Continuing Public Benefits | Food Stamps; Medicare/Medicaid; Social Security Disability; Public Assistance
- Immigration | Immigrant eligibility for various public benefits; Emergency immigration legal issues
- Employment | Accessing emergency unemployment benefits
- Other | Replacing lost documentation/identification; Wills and advance directives; Special education services for displaced disabled children

For more information, please contact—Chris LaBarge, Office of Councilwoman Rosie Mendez at 212.677.1077 or at clabarge@council.nyc.gov or Marcela Medina, Office of Assemblymember Brian Kavanagh at 212-979-9696 or at marcela@briankavanagh.org