

THE HARLEM INDEPENDENT LIVING CENTER

Presents it's 2nd Annual

WHITE CANE AWARENESS

MONDAY, OCTOBER 15, 2012

10:00AM TO 12:00 NOON

in

The Art Gallery at Adam Clayton Powell

State Office Building Plaza

163 West 125th St., 2nd Fl.

New York, NY 10027

(between Adam Clayton Powell Blvd & Lenox Ave.)

(ID REQUIRED FOR ENTRY)

"Mobility-safety of visually impaired in New York City"

Keynote Speaker: Associate Commissioner Brian Daniels, CBVH; panel speakers, vendors and more.

ASL Interpreter will be present

REFRESHMENTS WILL BE SERVED

FOR MORE INFORMATION & R.S.V.P. BY 10/11/12, CONTACT:

Marcia Estevez: mestevez@hilc.org

(212) 222-7122 EXT. 200 (voice)

Relay: 866-326-5876

SPONSORED BY:

Harlem Independent Living Center (HILC)

NYS Commission for the Blind (CBVH)

The Harlem Independent Living Center is a not for profit agency committed to working with the disabled population in Northern Manhattan on obtaining benefits, housing information, vocational/education resources and peer support