Re: Resolution #07/01-945/Preliminary Determination Pursuant to the Desk Audit of the Office of the Richmond County Public Administrator (RCPA) and its Compliance with the Equal Employment Practices Commission's Minimum Equal Employment Opportunity Standards for Non-Mayoral Agencies With Less Than 15 Employees for the Period Starting January 1, 2005 and ending June 30, 2006.

Dear Mr. Gotlin:

Pursuant to the New York City Charter, the Equal Employment Practices Commission (EEPC) is mandated to audit and evaluate the employment practices, programs, policies, and procedures of city agencies and their efforts to ensure fair and effective equal employment opportunity for minority group members and women. (New York City Charter, Chapter 36, Section 831 (d)(2) and (5)).

The Charter defines city agency as "each city, county, borough, corporation, authority, or other governmental agency where the expenses are paid in whole or in part from the city treasury." Public Administrator offices are funded by the City of New York and are therefore considered city agencies pursuant to Chapter 36, Section 831(a) of the New York City Charter.

Inasmuch as Public Administrator offices have small staffs-- the authorized permanent headcount is not more than 15 employees -- this Commission has determined that our standard audit procedure would be inappropriate. Therefore, this Commission has established a set of "Minimum Equal Employment Opportunity Standards for Non-Mayoral Agencies With Less Than 15 Employees" (Minimum Standards).

The Standards provide that non-mayoral agencies must:

1. Adopt the Citywide EEO Policy (2005) or issue an agency-specific EEO Policy that is consistent with the Citywide EEO Policy.
2. Distribute the Citywide EEO Policy or the agency-specific EEO Policy to all current and new employees.
3. Attach to the Citywide EEO Policy or the agency-specific EEO Policy a memo from the agency head reiterating his or her commitment to EEO and listing the name and phone number of the EEO Officer.
4. Distribute the EEO Policy Handbook, About EEO: What You May Not Know (DCAS, 2003 with addendums) to all current and new employees.
5. Post the Citywide EEO Policy Statement (Section I of the Citywide EEO Policy) or the agency-specific EEO Policy Statement.
6. Appoint – and provide appropriate EEO training to – an EEO Officer, or designate an EEO professional from another City agency to administer the EEO Program.
7. Provide basic EEO training to all current and new employees.
8. Post all job vacancy notices internally and citywide.
9. Include the EEO tag line in all job recruitment literature.

This letter contains the preliminary determinations of the EEPC staff pursuant to its desk audit of compliance by the RCPA with the above Minimum Standards. A desk audit questionnaire (Attachment #1), consistent with the aforementioned standards, was forwarded to the RCPA on July 21, 2006. The completed questionnaire was received on August 4, 2006. An addendum was sent on September 22, 2006 and was returned on October 3, 2006. The following preliminary determinations indicate where the RCPA has complied and failed to comply, in whole or in part, with the Minimum Standards.

Recommendations for corrective actions included in this letter are consistent with the aforementioned Minimum Equal Employment Opportunity Standards for Non-Mayoral Agencies With Less Than 15 Employees and the equal employment opportunity requirements of the Federal, State, and City laws.

Scope and Methodology

Audit methodology included an analysis of the RCPA's responses to 26 specific desk audit questions and 7 addendum questions.

Description of the Public Administrator Offices

A Public Administrator office is located in each of New York City's five counties. The Public Administrator's duty is to manage the estates of deceased persons in cases where no relatives exist. To this end, the Public Administrator makes burial arrangements, conducts investigations to discover assets, liquidates assets at public sale or distributes assets to heirs, protects the decedent's property, pays the decedent's bills and taxes, locates persons entitled to inherit from the estate, and ensures that such persons receive their inheritance.

The RCPA has 5 employees: 3 Caucasian females and 2 Caucasian males.

PRELIMINARY DETERMINATION

Following are the preliminary determinations with the required corrective actions and recommendations, pursuant to the RCPA's compliance with the aforementioned minimum equal employment opportunity standards:

Issuance, Distribution, and Posting of Equal Employment Opportunity Policy Statement

The RCPA is in partial compliance with the following minimum standard:

The RCPA has issued the Citywide EEO Policy (2005) along with an agency-specific EEO Policy Statement. The agency's EEO Policy Statement, however, does not contain an up-to-date list of "protected classes" under New York State and New York City Human Rights Laws. Specifically, the statement does not indicate that it is illegal to discriminate on the basis of military status, partnership status, predisposing genetic characteristic, gender identity, status as a victim of sex offenses and stalking, and status as a victim of domestic violence. Corrective action is required.

1. Recommendation: The RCPA should update its EEO Policy Statement to include all the protected classes under the New York State and New York City Human Rights Laws.

The RCPA is in compliance with the following minimum standard:

The RCPA continually posts its EEO Policy Statement and the Citywide EEO Policy Statement in its office.

EEO Policy and Handbook Distribution

The RCPA is in compliance with the following minimum standards:

Since the RCPA's EEO Policy Statement makes reference to the Citywide EEO Policy for the handling and investigation of discrimination complaints, the documents are jointly distributed. They were distributed to all current and new employees in 2005 and 2006.

The RCPA has attached a memo from the Public Administrator reiterating his commitment to EEO and listing the name and phone number of the EEO Officer.

The RCPA is in not in compliance with the following minimum standard:

The RCPA did not distribute the EEO Policy Handbook, About EEO: What You May Not Know (DCAS, 2003 with addendums), to its employees during the period in review.

The handbook, however, was distributed to all current and new employees in August, 2006 – after the audit period. No corrective action is required.

Appointment and Training of EEO Officer

The RCPA is in compliance with the following minimum standard:

The RCPA formally appointed an EEO Officer in August 2006. Staff was informed both orally and in writing of this appointment.

The RCPA is in partial compliance with the following minimum standard:

The RCPA's EEO Officer received in-house EEO training from the Public Administrator (which consisted of an overview of federal, city, and state EEO laws and the City of New York's Discrimination Complaint Procedure). It is important that EEO Officers receive uniform and documentable comprehensive EEO training. For this reason, the EEPD considers standard training for EEO professionals from the Department of Citywide Administrative Services or equivalent EEO training from another reputable organization appropriate. Corrective action is required.

2. Recommendation: The RCPA should provide appropriate EEO training (such as the 5-day basic training for EEO Professionals by the Department of Citywide Administrative Services or the EEO Studies Program of Cornell University's School of Industrial and Labor Relations) to its EEO Officer, or designate a trained EEO professional from another City agency to administer the EEO Program.

Agency EEO Training

The RCPA is not in compliance with the following minimum standard:

The RCPA has not provided EEO training to all current and new employees. Corrective action is required.

3. Recommendation: The RCPA should provide basic EEO training to all current and new employees.

Posting of Job Vacancies

No jobs were advertised during the period in review.

SUMMARY OF RECOMMENDED CORRECTIVE ACTIONS:

1. The RCPA should update its EEO policy to include all the protected classes under the New York State and New York City Human Rights Laws.

2. The RCPA should provide appropriate EEO training (such as the 5-day basic training for EEO Professionals by the Department of Citywide Administrative Services or the EEO Studies Program of Cornell University's School of Industrial and Labor Relations) to its EEO Officer, or designate a trained EEO professional from another City agency to administer the EEO Program.
3. The RCPA should provide basic EEO training to all current and new employees.

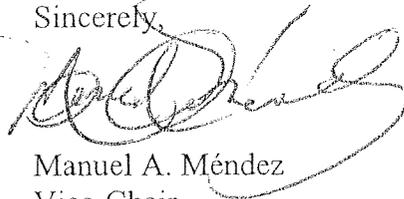

Conclusion

Pursuant to Chapter 36 of the New York City Charter and the previously cited preliminary determinations in relation to the EEPC's desk audit of compliance by the office of the Public Administrator with the minimum standards established by the Equal Employment Practices Commission, we respectfully request your response to the aforementioned preliminary determinations.

Your response should indicate what corrective actions your office will take to comply with the minimum standards established by the Equal Employment Practices Commission. As you indicated during the January 5, 2007 audit exit meeting, you have already implemented some of our recommended corrective actions. Please specify those corrective actions in your response. Please forward your response within thirty days of receipt of this letter.

In closing, we want to thank you and your staff for your cooperation.

Sincerely,

Manuel A. Méndez
Vice-Chair

Dear Commissioner Gotlin:

Thank you for your February 6, 2007 response to our January 25, 1997 Letter of Preliminary Determination pursuant to the desk audit of the Richmond County Public Administrator' office and its compliance with the Equal Employment Practices Commission's Minimum Standards for Equal Employment Opportunity by Non-Mayoral Agencies with Less than 15 Employees from January 1, 2005 to June 30, 2006.

After reviewing your response, our Final Determination is as follows:

Agree

We agree with your response to the following EEPC recommendation, pending documentation that can be attached to your reply or provided during the compliance period:

Recommendation #2

The RCPA should provide appropriate EEO training (such as the 5-day basic training for EEO Professionals by the Department of Citywide Administrative Services or the EEO Studies Program of Cornell University's School of Industrial and Labor Relations) to its EEO Officer, or designate a trained EEO professional from another City agency to administer the EEO Program.

Partially Agree

We partially agree with your responses to the following EEPC recommendations, pending documentation that can be attached to your reply or provided during the compliance period.

Recommendation #1

The RCPA should update its EEO Policy Statement to include all the protected classes under the New York State and New York City Human Rights Laws.

Your Response

The RCPA has updated its EEO Policy Statement to include all the protected classes under the New York State and New York City Human Rights Laws. This updated version has been distributed to all employees and also posted in our office (copy enclosed).

EEPC Rationale

The RCPA's updated EEO Policy Statement does not fully reflect recent changes to the New York City and New York State Human Rights Laws. Specifically, that Policy does not list the following, updated protected classes: Gender (including gender identity); predisposing genetic characteristics (not "genetic predisposition or carrier status"); and status as a victim or witness of domestic violence, sexual offenses and stalking.

(See updated list of these protected classes on the Department of Citywide Administrative Services' website (www.nyc.gov/html/dcas/downloads/pdf/misc/eo_policyaddendum.pdf)).

Recommendation # 3

The RCPA should provide basic EEO training to all current and new employees.

Your Response

The RCPA provided a basic EEO training session for all current employees on January 23, 2007. The updated version of the Public Administrator of Richmond County Equal Employment Opportunity Program was reviewed and discussed which incorporated the up-to-date list of all "protected cases." (This updated version was distributed to all employees on December 27, 2006). The contents of the City of New York EEO Policy, which was distributed to all employees on August 3, 2006, was also reviewed. Employees were again informed that the Office of the Richmond County Public Administrator is completely committed to all of the policies of the City of New York with respect to Equal Employment Opportunities. A copy of the New York State and Federal Equal Employment Opportunity Law Posters for 2007 has been posted in our office.

EEPC Rationale

After your EEO Officer receives the five-day training for EEO professionals from the Department of Citywide Administrative Services (DCAS), she should provide EEO refresher training to the RCPA employees based on the EEO training standards established by the DCAS.

Conclusion

Pursuant to section 832 of the New York City Charter, this Commission will initiate an audit compliance period not to exceed six months. However, you may respond in writing to this Final Determination prior to the initiation of audit compliance.

If you desire to issue a written response, please do so within thirty days. If you decide not to issue a written response, we will initiate audit compliance shortly thereafter. EEPC Counsel Lisa Badner or her designee will contact you to ascertain your intentions.

In closing, we thank you and your staff for your cooperation during the audit process. We look forward to a mutually satisfactory compliance process.

Sincerely,

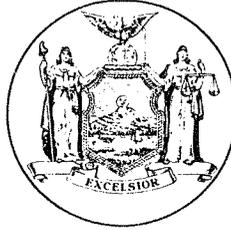

Ernest F. Hart, Esq.

RE: Final Determination Pursuant to the Desk Audit of the Office of the Richmond County Public Administrator (RCPA) and its Compliance with the Equal Employment Practices Commission's Minimum Standards for Equal Employment Opportunity by Non-Mayoral Agencies With Less Than 15 Employees for the Period Starting January 1, 2005 and ending June 30, 2006.

Dear Commissioner Hart:

After reviewing your final determination in your letter dated February 14, 2007, we offer the following response:

Recommendation #2

The RCPA should provide appropriate EEO training (such as the 5-day basic training for EEO Professionals by the Department of Citywide Administrative Services or the EEO Studies Program of Cornell University's School of Industrial and Labor Relations) to its EEO Officer, or designate a trained EEO professional from another City agency to administer the EEO Program.

RCPA Response to Recommendation #2

We have received notification from the Department of Citywide Administrative Services (DCAS) that a Basic Training for EEO Representatives course has been scheduled for March 15, 22, 29, April 5 and 12, 2007. We are planning to have a representative attend this course.

Recommendation #1 – EEPC Rationale

The RCPA's updated EEO Policy Statement does not fully reflect recent changes to the New York City and New York State Human Rights Laws. Specifically, that Policy does not list the following, updated protected classes: Gender (including gender identity); predisposing genetic characteristics (not "generic predisposition or carrier status"); and status as a victim or witness of domestic violence, sexual offenses and stalking.

RCPA Response to Recommendation #1 – EEPC Rationale

The RCPA has updated its EEO Policy Statement on March 1, 2007 to include all the protected classes under the New York State and New York City Human Rights Laws in accordance with the Addendum to Equal Employment Opportunity Policy Standards and Procedures to Be Utilized by City Agencies (2005) dated December 14, 2006. A copy of our updated policy is enclosed. This updated policy has been distributed to all RCPA employees, including a copy of the Addendum as referenced above. The RCPA updated policy has been posted in our office.

Recommendation #3 – EEPC Rationale

After your EEO Officer receives the five-day training for EEO professionals from the Department of Citywide Administrative Services (DCAS), she should provide EEO refresher training to the RCPA employees based on the EEO training standards established by DCAS.

RCPA Response to Recommendation #3 – EEPC Rationale

Upon RCPA participation and completion of the 5-day basic training for EEO Professionals by the Department of Citywide Administrative Services scheduled for March 15, 22, 29, April 5 and April 12th, EEO refresher training will be provided to the RCPA employees based on the EEO training standards established by DCAS.

We look forward to a mutually satisfactory compliance process as stated in your letter.

As a point of information regarding your February 14, 2007 letter, the first sentence refers to your letter of January 25, 1997. We assume the correct date is January 25, 2007. We have corrected this on our copy.

Very truly yours,
