

Industry Notice #15-03 -- UPDATED
For Immediate Release

January 27, 2015

Meera Joshi
Commissioner/Chair

Storm Info Update for TLC Licensees

Allan J. Fromberg
Public Affairs
press@tlc.nyc.gov

The New York City Taxi and Limousine Commission (TLC) announces that the citywide travel ban has been lifted as of 7:30 a.m. On Tuesday, January 27.

Conditions remain extremely hazardous....if you are going to drive, exercise extreme caution.....DRIVE SAFELY!

The TLC will vigorously investigate all allegations of price gouging/overcharging.

Inspection appointments remain cancelled for 1/27 and 1/28.

33 Beaver Street
22nd Floor
New York, NY 10004

Saturday Inspections - Medallion taxicabs, Street Hail Liveries and For- Hire Vehicles scheduled for inspection on 1/27/2015 and 1/28/2015 should appear at the Woodside Inspection facility on Saturday 1/31/2015 at their same scheduled time. No new appointment confirmation forms for Saturday will be issued. The appointment confirmation form you have now should be presented when you arrive on Saturday 1/31/2015 for your inspection.

Appointments to file applications at our Long Island City and Staten Island offices for Tuesday 1/27/2015 are being rescheduled. You will receive a new appointment confirmation form by e-mail.

The TLC's Licensing facility will reopen Wednesday, January 28.

Please continue to monitor news media closely for storm updates, and check the TLC web site at www.nyc.gov/taxi for any agency updates. You may also contact the TLC call Center at 718-391-5501. Visit <http://www1.nyc.gov/site/severeweather/index.page> for official storm updates.